

PC rule for state administration quashed by top court (adds)

→ dissenting opinions, reactions from para 13 on

Ljubljana, 6 December - The Constitutional Court has found the government's regulation imposing Covid-19 recovery or vaccination mandate (PC) on state administration employees at work place in contravention with the constitution for not being aligned with the relevant law. The court already stayed the regulation in late September.

The rest of this news item is available to subscribers.

The news item consists of 3.706 characters (without spaces) or 707 words words.

Buy the news item. Price: 2 tokens; on account: 0 tokens.

Dec 6, 2021, 16:57 ep/sm/eho/eho

© STA, 2021