

Top court stays PC rule for civil servants (adds)

→ comments by PM, interior minister in para 16-17

Ljubljana, 30 September - The Constitutional Court has stayed the government's regulation under which state administration employees would have to be either Covid-19 reconvalescent or vaccinated (PC) to come to work starting from Friday. The minister in charge has announced the new rule will thus not come into effect as planned tomorrow.

The rest of this news item is available to subscribers.

The news item consists of 3.866 characters (without spaces) or 741 words words.

Buy the news item. Price: 2 tokens; on account: 0 tokens.

Sep 30, 2021, 20:51 ep/aaz/eho/zm/zm
© STA, 2021